Listening 1:

My name is Jordan. In my family, many relatives have different jobs and work routines. My brother, Leo, is a computer programmer. He works for an IT company, but he usually works remotely. He develops software and organizes his daily tasks from his home office. My father, Ryan, is a lawyer. He works at a law firm. He defends people and advises clients on legal issues. He meets many clients during the day. My mother, Sarah, is a pharmacist. She works in a pharmacy and serves customers. She checks prescriptions and advises people on medications. My cousin, Olivia, is a security guard. She works at a large shopping centre. Every day, she checks IDs and serves the visitors to ensure everyone is safe. My uncle, Robert, is an accountant. He works in an accounting firm and advises people on finances. He manages the accounts of many local businesses. Finally, my aunt, Sophie, is a psychologist. She works in a clinic and counsels people. She researches human behavior to help her patients feel better.

Listening 2:

Hello! I am Mary. Welcome to my house. Let me show you my two favorite rooms: the living room and the kitchen. Our living room is very spacious and stylish. We have a large, comfortable sofa and a beautiful armchair. I love relaxing with the soft cushions on them. At the moment, my children are watching TV there. Next to the living room is our kitchen. We have a big fridge for our food, a modern oven, and a dishwasher. I am preparing dinner in the kitchen right now. Home sweet home!
